FROM THEIR ROYAL MAJESTIES

Unto the Populace of the Outlands, do We, King Maelgwn and Queen Cainnleach send greetings of warm tidings to one and all. The last few months have been filled with many moments of excitement and joy as we have traveled to witness the crown tournament of our allied Kingdom of Artemisia and, to witness and sign the Estrella War Treaty along with our cousins in the Kingdom of Atenveldt.

Her Majesty, set witness to wondrous marvels at Our own Kingdom's Arts and Sciences event held in the Barony of Dragonsspine. Congratulations to THL Laure Aleire who won overall prize as Our new Kingdom A & S Champion. Within the past month this Kingdom has seen several gentles give generously of themselves to others in many different ways.

We have heard the words of the populace of the Barony of Unser Hafen, we have set forth in search for their new Baron and Baroness to lead them onto a new path of prosperity and growth.

As always, the Outlands has set forth a great example in giving. This Kingdom's "Toys for Tots" events have shown ourselves as a very giving group. Once again we have shown that we give more to others then we give to ourselves. Her Majesty and I, would like to tip Our crowns to all who have given from their hearts to those that might have gone without this holiday season. Huzzah!!!!!

As Our coronation day has passed, We would express Our deepest "thank you" to Duke Kynan and Duchess Eleanor for all they have given this kingdom during their tenure as our ruling Monarchs. We wish them joyous days in their travels and new endeavors. This kingdom's coronation brought new days of excitement to Us and those of it's populace.

Her Majesty has asked Master Gunvaldt, to be Her "Shield of Chivalry". Showing all an example of honor and chivalry and to others on the field of battle. Her Majesty's "Protector" and "Champion" will have prevailed as your read this missive. Let there names be heard throughout as leaders and a show of strength of what we are.

The Outlands newly instated War Counsel has been set in place to help with the organizing of this year's Estrella War and years to follow. Duchess Madigan will be in contact with all those on the Counsel to start planning that which the Counsel has been called upon to do.

Good gentles of this Kingdom. Your King and Queen call upon all the mighty warriors to sharpen your weapons. Artisans, to gather your knowledge and skills. We, CALL YOU TO WAR!!!!!! Once again we shall set forth on a great journey to the Kingdom of Atenveldt for the Estrella War with our allied Kingdom of Artemisia. We will show the Knowne World that WE, the grand and colorful Kingdom of the Outlands shall endeavor to go forth, representing we are a Kingdom of wondrous skills, honor and respect to others and to ourselves. There truly isn't any other Kingdom greater then ourselves..... Long Live the Outlands and it's Glory!!!!!!!!

With winter at the doorstep and spring but a future thought, we prepare for the majestic gala known throughout the lands as Caer Galen Midwinter. Everyone is encouraged to bring their banners, so the hall may be filled with much color and heraldry. This year's theme is Wretched Purple Excess. You may wish to dress in this color, or perhaps decorate something, e.g. tablecloths, boxes, banners, Gypsies, ... Punning is greatly encouraged!

We are hosting a Mystery A & S Competition! Stump the finest researchers and artisans with a practical object whose use has faded into the mists of time. Other activities will include: a Sonnet Writing competition, the inauguration of the Caer Galen Senate, selection of next year's Captain of the City Guard, feasting upon Italian and German dishes, selection of the new Harp of Caer Galen, dancing, revelry, and a poll regarding the question of the shire becoming a Province or a Barony.

Please see the event's web site or contact the autocrat for more details.

The Saxons fought to save their land from Normans and from Vikings, And so they fought two battles grand at Stamford Bridge and Hastings. And with those battles, England came out from the age of mystery. Come join us at the 12th Night feast to share this time in history.

Good gentles, the birth of the new England occurred on the battlefields at Stamford Bridge and Hastings in 1066. From the depths of the dark ages, England was transformed into the country we have come to know during the medieval and enlightened ages of the renaissance.

There will be games and contests pitting the Saxons against Vikings and Normans. Planned activities include boffer tournaments for adults and children, dart tournaments, and an embroidery contest using patterns from the Bayeaux tapestry. Children will be able to "paint" panels from the tapestry as well as enjoy a special event, the Harald Hardrada Pinata (not period, but it should be a lot of fun!!). Other games such as an invasions trivia contest and a bardic competition on an invasion theme will also be held, with the winning bard performing at the evening feast. The best costumes from each of the three factions in the invasion wars will be awarded prizes, with an overall prize for the best costume for men and women. All contest participants will register at troll so that they are included in their events at the appropriate time.

The invasions feast will include items similar to those that appear on two separate panels of the Bayeaux tapestry. Prepared by Lady Aethelind of Erbesweald, the feast will combine the tastes of Vikings, Normans, and Saxons as they occurred at the height of the invasion period. First course of the feast is the Fighter's table, and includes Pork roast, stewed apples, pease porridge with greens, and oat bread. Second course is Bishop Odo's fare, and includes salmon cawdle, blanched greens and plum bread pudding. The final course is "The Conqueror's Bounty" and includes beef roast, honey glazed root vegetables, white bread and barley with pears.

A donation lunch provided by the outstanding cooks of Caerthe and coordinated by THL Arwen Southenwood is planned, with proceeds to be shared between the Fortress and OH publication funds.

Merchants are welcome! However, reservations for space are required in advance as merchant space is limited extremely limited. No merchant may reserve more than one table. Site fees are required for merchants and a tithe for prizes is expected. Contact Lady Killian McKenzie (Dawn Whitacre) at 303 773-9596 for space and requirements.

Their Excellencies, Conrade and Leah, Baron and Baroness of the Citadel of the Southern Pass, entreat you to join with them in the safety of the Citadel for a sumptuous feast and revelry; as well as activities martial, to be held on the 12th day of January.

The NEW site is located at Loretto Academy, a beautiful site with a finer hall than the old. Tentatively, Court will be held at 5PM with the feast to follow. During the feasting and after, you will be entertained by the renowned Clann Tynker. Saturday's War Practice will start at 11am and will be held at the regular site in Memorial Park.

Their Excellencies would like to, at this time, dispute the ongoing rumors that the Plague has been reported in the Citadel This is categorically untrue. While the wild lands of Argonia have had incidences of this malady, no truly substantiated cases have been reported by our learned physicians. You will be able to enjoy the feast and revelry within the strong and well-guarded walls of the Citadel with no concerns for your well being or that of your companions. The most learned doctor Goffolino upon consulting many an ancient text has discovered that the ancients advise the wearing of a Topaz or Bloodstone amulet to protect against the Plague should you encounter it on your journey to the plague-free lands of the Citadel. If you desire, you might also wear a garland of garlic, as prescribed by the learned doctor Schiazzobuzzo. Her Excellency suggests, that if you follow his advise, you add lavender or violets to temper the effects on those around you.

.The feast style is that of the Romance lands.

To all good and noble gentles, of the Great and Mighty Barony of Dragonsspine Nay! to all the Outlands,

Has the cold and dreary skies of winter darkened your spirits? Soured your bread? Brought the tint of brown to your sword and armor? If so, then by all means come and join us high atop the spine of the dragon, well above the clouds standing in the bright light of the sun, where the day still has warmth, and hundreds of candles bring light and warmth to the night. Where fair maids and warriors alike, still celebrate the joy of life, in anticipation of the coming of the New Year. So let not this great occasion pass you by. Come and light your spirit, bring life to your sword, let the sun glint off your armor and let all join in the merriment. There will be food enough to stagger even the appetite of a dragon. Combats and Tourneys so robust with skill and honor that the din of combat shall ring through the mountains and roll well beyond the plains. Games! Oh the games that will go from the break of dawn well into the break of the next dawn. Are you excited yet!? Well if not, then perhaps you already died of a straw death. Have some kind and gentle soul drag your corpse here and this will even awaken your dead soul. What you may ask is this glorious event? Well of course it is none other than..... Dragonsspine's Candlemas, haven't you heard? Well now you have!

The Travelers & the Bear

Two friends were walking down the path together when they met a bear. One of them got frightened, climbed up a tree and hid. His friend knew that he could not defend himself all alone, so he fell down on the ground and pretended to be dead. The bear came up to him and sniffed his head and his ears. The man was very careful not to breathe too hard. The bear, believing he was dead, went away. The other man came down from the tree and asked his friend what the bear had whispered in his ear. His friend said, "The bear told me never to travel any more with people who run away when there is danger."
Moral: A real friend helps you out when you're in trouble. AESOP

OFFICER LETTERS

FROM THE OUTGOING EARL MARSHAL:

Greetings Good Populace of the Outlands,
This month my message is brief, as it is my last in this office. As you know, Earl Cathyn will be taking over the Earl Marshallate as of al-Barran Midwinter. I would ask you all to show him the courtesy that you have shown me during my time in this office, as I know that he will do his best to serve the Outlands in this regard. I would also like to take a moment to thank all of the local Knight Marshals, Authorizing Marshals, and other marshals who I have had the privilege of working with during my tenure for the time they have spent and the dedication they have shown to make the art of combat here in the Outlands both safe and enjoyable. Fight well and honorably, and be safe!

Hrothgar

FROM THE INCOMING EARL MARSHALL

Greetings,
A good place for any new officer to start his tenure is to thank his predecessor, and I would like to do just that. My deepest thanks go to Duke Hrothgar Monomakh for the job he has preformed for the Outlands, his amazing diligence in office will be a hard act for me to follow, and I will endevor to not dissapoint. Fortunately, His Grace is passing on a well staffed office, a well organized system of record-keeping and report management, and a certain lack of serious dilemas for me to face.
I am looking forward to meeting those of I do not yet know, both in battle and in the peace of the feasthall. The renown of the Outlands is widespread, it is our warriors who have been the cause for some portion of this renown. We are blessed with a bold spirit on the battlefield, tempered and enhanced by our comraderie between both ourselves and our foes. It is the safety with which we practice our particular brand of mayhem which allows us to take victory upon the field, and yet have our vanquished take up our offered hands of friendship. I hope as Earl Marshall to continue to encourage our ferocity on the field, and our safe practice of that ferocity. Remember, a well cared-for opponent should last you a lifetime of fights!
As to the Rapier field, the Outlands is being well served by Don Carrick, who will be Acting Rapier Marshall through Estrella War. Recognizing the great efforts he has pre-formed in preparation for the upcoming War, he has been asked to continue with the organization of the Rapier Army, and to ensure there will be abundant fun available when we visit our long-time friends to the west. I have sought and received applications for a permanent Kingdom Rapier Marshall, and am now asking the fencing community of the Outlands to send me their opinions on the four candidates who have applied. Don Oengus, Viscount Berold, Don Carrick, and Don Govanen have volunteered to take up these responsibilities, and I would like to have some idea about what the fencers of the Outlands think on this matter so that I might be better prepared to advise Their Majesties. The deadline for these communications will be February 1st, so that I might prepare a briefing to be delivered to TRM at Estrella. Please confine your commentary to matters pertinent to each candidate's ability to preform (or not) the duties of this office.
Please remember that the time to prepare for War is upon us. Train with your units, repair your gear, and, please, take some time to learn about marshalling from your local marshalls, in that there can never be too many marshalls available to ensure the safety of our friends and foes. Read the Treaty, and try to get familiar with the special conventions which will be in use at War.
Between now and War, I will be in attendance at al-Barranian Midwinter, and quite likely both Caerthan and Citadel 12th Nights, and would hope to sit down over a warm cup of cider with the local marshalls to discuss the War and fighting issues in general.
For the Glory of the Outlands, fight safely and with honor.
Earl Cathyn Fitzgerald

FROM THE ACTING KINGDOM RAPIER MARSHAL

Unto all rapier fighters of the Kingdom of the Outlands does Don Carrick send greetings! As you know, War fast approaches! The rapier scenarios for Estrella look to be a lot of fun this year, minimizing some of the problems we've had in the past. Please review the scenarios (they're on-line, or contact me for a copy) to familiarize yourselves with the conventions and start training. It is important to note that draw cuts must be a minimum of 7" (which is 5" shorter than Outlands standard) and all scenarios this year will be using the Death From Behind (DFB) engagement model. Please include these techniques in all of your war practices, so that the Outlands can field not only the best fighters, but the safest ones as well.

On another note, I have discovered a discrepancy between the Rules of the List and the current Kingdom Rapier Rules. Specifically, the current rules state that only the Marshal in Charge of an event or practice may remove a fighter from the field. As this is in direct conflict with the Rules of the List, I will be revising the Rules to provide that any field marshal may remove a fighter from the field, subject to the review of the Marshal In Charge. This rules change shall take effect immediately, and will be codified in early January.

In the process, I am making a number of other conforming rules changes, which I intend to present to Their Majesties for signature at Caerthan 12th Night. For this reason, I ask that anyone interested in commenting on the proposed changes send written comments to me by no later than January 1, 2002. Copies of the proposed changes will be available from any local or authorizing marshal, or you may of course contact me directly.

Finally, I need reports from all local and authorizing marshals by the end of the month. Please tell me the number of authorized fighters in your local groups, what they are authorized in, how many authorized marshals there are, and details of any incidences, injuries, sanctions, or other noteworthy events.

In Service,
Don Carrick

FROM THE KINGDOM WATERBEARER

Greetings, fair Outlands!
Though it may seem as if the leaves have but barely fallen, the time of planning for the great Estrella War is hard upon us. In this War, the role of the waterbearers is of vital importance, keeping fighters, fencers, archers, and marshals well watered and able to strive upon the field.

Thus it is that I call upon the populace of the Outlands to support the martial arts by waterbearing and supporting the waterbearers. To ensure that everyone is watered, both bearers and supplies are needed. I would greatly appreciate hearing from waterbearers across the Kingdom, and especially those waterbearers who hold water coolers, bags and other supplies. The addition of unmanned waterpoints in the Battle Pit will make extra supplies a necessity. I would also like to hear from anyone desiring to coordinate Outlands waterbearing on the rapier field (I can only be in so many places at one time).

I urge everyone at War to spare an hour or two from fighting or shopping or class-going to come out and waterbear. Even something as simple as bringing a clean, empty 2-Liter bottle can help. If all the hands in the Outlands pull together, as surely they shall, the work will be light and done in plenty of time to enjoy the company of our friends (and occasional enemies).
Lady Alia Marie de Blois

The Happiness of a Flea

How happier is that flea
Which in thy breast doth play,
Than that pied butterfly
Which courts the flame, and in the same doth die!
That hath a light delight,
Poor fool! Contented only with a sight;
When this doth sport, and swell with dearest food,
And if he dies, he, knight-like, dies in blood.

Of That Same

Poor flea! Then thou didst die;
Yet by so fair a hand,
That thus to die was Destine to command:
Thou die didst, yet didst try
A lover's last delight,
To vault on virgin plains, her kiss and bite:
Thou diedst, yet hast thy tomb
Between those pap, O dear and stately room!
Flea, happier far, more blest
Than Phoenix burning in his spicy nest!

- Alcohol Status (Wet, dry, discreetly wet, etc.)

- All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)

Optional, but highly recommended:

- A map to the site

- Feast menu (if feast is provided)
- Other pertinent site information (pet restrictions, water availability, etc.)

'Contact Information' for autocrats as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, address, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available. Contact Information' for other coordinators as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available.

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the three (3) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
